Taka Hello!

Masa Hello!

Philine Hello! Good morning!

Taka Nice to meet you. I'm Taka.

Masa I'm Masa.

Philine Nice to meet you. I'm Philine.

Taka うしろの建物は、アジアンテイストのような気
もするんだけど、どこの国の動物園なんだろう？

Masa Where are you now?

Philine I am in Zoo Berlin now, in Germany.

Masa You're in Zoo Berlin in Germany.

Philine Zoo Berlin is the oldest zoo in Germany. It was built in 1844.

Masa Wow, I see. That's nice.

Taka 1844年？すごい歴史だね。
It's very historical.

Philine Yes, it is very historical.

Taka Can we see inside?

Philine Of course you can! Come on!
I'll show you.

Masa Thank you.

Philine So, now let's see the king of all animals. Who is that?

Masa King of animals?

Taka King of animals というと…あれかなっ て感じがするけど？

Masa The flowers are beautiful.

Philine Yes. Our gardeners are very proud of them. This year, they are very beautiful.

Masa 今年は、特に美しいみたい。

Philine So, here we are at the lions!

Taka&Masa Oh!

Taka I like lions!

Masa I like lions, too.

Philine Unfortunately, I can't see any of them because it's raining...
uhh...

Masa Oh, okay.

Philine We can have a look if they're hiding in the den.

Masa 雨だからちょっと今、外にライオンが見えない んだよねって。

Taka Philine, where do lions live?

Philine Lions live in the savanna.

Masa Lions live in the savanna.

Taka Savanna... サバンナ！言われてみれば、 サバンナっぽい感じに作られてるよね？

Masa そうだね。

Is that the savanna area?

Philine Yes. So, we tried to build the homes of the animals to look like their natural homes.

Masa I see.

Philine There are the lions.

Masa Ah, I can see the lions!

Philine Two years old.

Taka&Masa Oh, two years old.

Philine Pandas live in bamboo forests.

Masa Pandas live in bamboo forests.

Taka へえ～、そっか、まあでも、パンダっていえば、竹のイメージあるよね。

Philine There are a very few forests for the pandas to live in. That is why they are endangered. So, we are doing the conservation work here. We are breeding pandas and maybe one day the little panda cubs will go back to the wild and return to their bamboo forests.

Masa Oh, I see.

Philine They are the only pandas in Germany.

Masa ドイツに、ここにしか、パンダがいないんだって。

Taka ふ～ん。Thank you. Philine, what can we see next?

Philine Come on! We're going to see a very close relative of ours now.

Masa Okay? とても私たちと近い生き物。

Taka 近い、おさるさん系な気がするよね? え、なんか、色々いるぞ。ちょっとシルエットだけだと何かわかんないけど。

Philine So, here we are. Can you see who is behind me?

Masa That's so cute!

Philine Here we are. So, these are our African penguins.

Taka&Masa African penguins!

Masa Where do African penguins live?

Philine So, the African penguins live by the sea.

Taka African penguins live by the sea.

Philine When you think of penguins, you think of Antarctica or of a very cold weather, but these penguins don't like the cold. They actually prefer the warm weather.

Masa そうなんだ。やっぱ、ペンギンっていうと、アイスとか、スノーを思い浮かべるけど、寒いのはとても苦手なんだって。

Taka 意外だよね。ペンギンって言われると、寒いとこかなってもう、先入観あるもんね。いやー、勉強になるなあ。

Philine The sound of the African penguin sounds like an other animal. Do you know which one?

Masa 鳴き声が、全然違う動物の鳴き声に似てるんだって。

Taka あー。Is it lions?

Philine No.

Masa Is it a dog?

Masa ロバ!

Masa Thank you for teaching us.

Philine Very welcome.

Taka あの一…住んでるところ散々聞いたじゃない? 何食べてるの?っていうのを聞き忘れてました、Takaは。

Masa Philine, we have more questions. Do you have more time?
